WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Research Society for the Study of Diabetes in India (RSSDI) – MP Chapter, it is our great pleasure to invite you to the RSSDI MP State Conference 2026 to be held on 03th–04th October 2026 in the historic city of Sanchi, Madhya Pradesh.

The conference will serve as a dynamic platform for clinicians, researchers, and healthcare professionals to share knowledge, present new research, and discuss recent advancements in diabetes care.

Through scientific sessions, expert lectures, panel discussions, and industry participation, we aim to strengthen collaboration and improve diabetes management across the region.

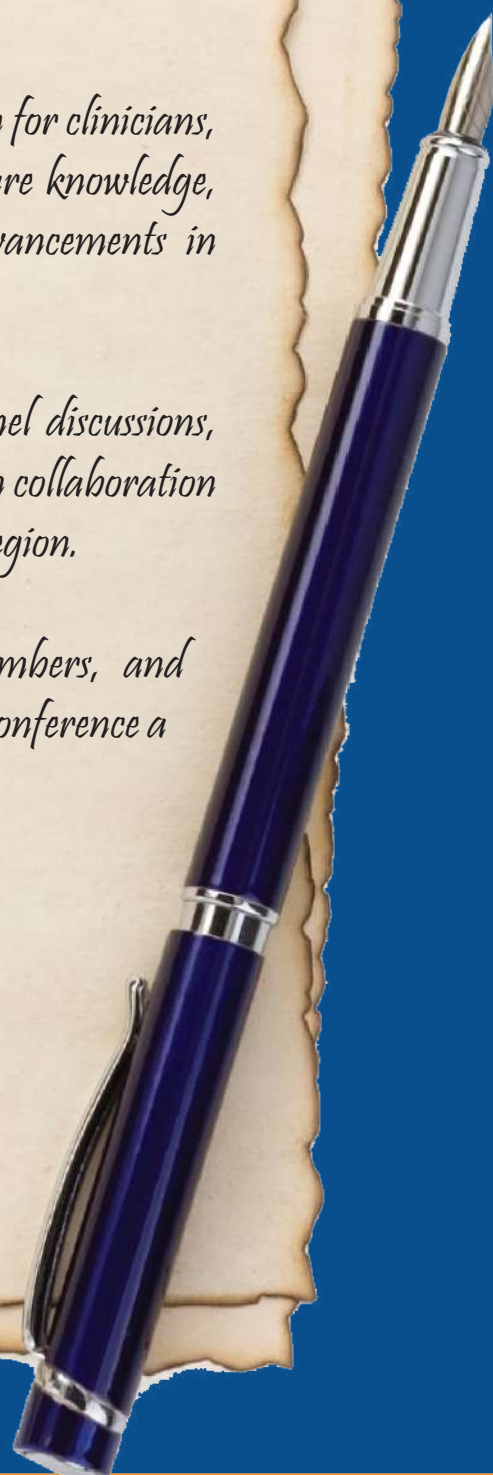

We warmly welcome delegates, faculty members, and industry partners to participate and make this conference a grand academic success.

We look forward to welcoming you to Sanchi.

Warm regards,

Organising Committee

(Saturday & Sunday) Sanchi Vidisha, Madhya Pradesh

A Heritage Spiritual Destination

Sanchi, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is one of India's most important Buddhist heritage destinations, known for its timeless architecture and spiritual significance. Located near Vidisha in Madhya Pradesh, Sanchi is home to the world-famous Great Stupa, built by Emperor Ashoka in the 3rd century BCE.

The site showcases beautifully preserved stupas, monasteries, temples, and intricately carved gateways (Toranas) that depict stories from the life of Lord Buddha. The peaceful ambiance and historical richness of Sanchi make it a perfect setting for intellectual exchange and meaningful discussions.

Beyond its historical importance, Sanchi offers a serene environment away from the hustle of city life, making it an ideal destination for conferences, reflection, and networking.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF RESEARCH SOCIETY FOR THE STUDY OF DIABETES IN INDIA M. P. CHAPTER
2026
3rd – 4th October, 2026 (Saturday & Sunday)
Magadham Resort
Sanchi Vidisha, Madhya Pradesh

While attending the RSSDI MP State Conference 2026 at Magadham Grande Resort, Sanchi, delegates can explore the rich cultural heritage and scenic beauty of nearby destinations.

Sanchi World Heritage Site

A UNESCO World Heritage Site, Sanchi is renowned for its ancient Buddhist monuments, including stupas, monasteries, and pillars dating back to the Mauryan period. It stands as one of India's most well-preserved archaeological sites, reflecting rich spiritual and architectural heritage.

 2-3 km from Venue

Udayagiri Caves

These historic rock-cut caves from the Gupta period are famous for their intricate carvings and sculptures of Hindu deities. The iconic Varaha (boar) avatar of Lord Vishnu is a major attraction, showcasing exceptional ancient craftsmanship.

 13 km from Sanchi

Bijamandal Temple

Also known as Vijaya Mandir, this ancient temple complex reflects early medieval Indian temple architecture. Though partially in ruins, it offers significant archaeological value and a glimpse into the region's historic past.

 6-10 km from Venue

Heliodorus Pillar

Popularly known as Khamba Baba, this ancient pillar was erected by a Greek ambassador Heliodorus in the 2nd century BCE. It stands as a symbol of early cultural exchange between India and the Greek world and is dedicated to Lord Vishnu.

 10-12 km from Venue

Udaipur Temple Basoda

A historic temple located near Basoda, known for its traditional architecture and spiritual significance. It attracts devotees and visitors interested in regional religious heritage and peaceful surroundings.

 35-40 km from Venue

Hindola Torana Gyaraspur

An architectural marvel, the Hindola Torana (swinging gateway) is a beautifully carved stone structure from ancient times. It is one of the finest examples of ornamental gateways in central India.

 35-40 km from Venue

Maladevi Temple Basoda

A unique rock-cut temple dedicated to Goddess Durga, perched on a hilltop. Known for its scenic location and intricate carvings, it offers both spiritual and panoramic experiences.

 35-40 km from Venue
